

Guidelines to submit your Final Paper to BSML's Theses Repository

If you're here, it means you're thinking about sharing your Final Paper and we want to thank you very much for your generosity. We really appreciate your contribution and yours is an invaluable gesture for young members, thank you!

To allow a clean and easy to use repository, please follow these guidelines.

1. Theses are submitted via email
2. Send an email to bsmachinelearning@gmail.com containing the following:
 - A file named `firstname_lastname_bachelor_graduationyear.pdf` containing your thesis in PDF format (e.g. john_doe_cleam_24.pdf) (`.tex` source code to generate the first page here)
 - The name of the advisor
 - not mandatory An abstract of max 400 characters (~ 60 words)
 - not mandatory A personal link (will be accessible by clicking on the author's name. It can be LinkedIn, Instagram, personal website etc.)

As soon as we receive the emails, we will add new submission to the website.

Thank you very much and enjoy the reading!

The BSML Team

Connecting minds, not only layers